Fisher & Paykel DishDrawer™ Earns Which? Best Buy Endorsement

Fisher & Paykel's single DishDrawer™ dishwasher has achieved a Best Buy endorsement from Which? for its superior cleaning and quiet operation. Which? testing showed that the Fisher & Paykel DishDrawer will leave your dishes sparkling and dry and is quieter and better at cleaning dishes than many of the compact dishwashers tested.

Which? is a consumer champion based in the UK, whose advice helps consumers make informed decisions. Which?'s Best Buy endorsement publicly recognises and celebrates excellent products. Which? only awards Best Buy icons to the product and providers that achieve the best results in its rigorous comparative testing and analysis and cannot be bought or requested. It is a completely independent, not-for-profit organisation.

Fisher & Paykel is delighted to receive the Which? Best Buy endorsement for its single DishDrawer™.UK and Europe General Manager Rakesh Tiwari says "The results and feedback from Which? testing will form a useful part in our ongoing consumer insight programme that drives the innovation and quality inherent in the Fisher & Paykel range of kitchen and laundry appliances."
